

ICASTING KIDS

Ongoing Acting Classes

For Kids and Teens Ages 7-17

with Kimberly McVicar and Jannette Sepwa

Weekly Classes starting July 10, 2010

Students will learn and develop:

- Confidence on Camera and Onstage
- Commercial Auditioning Techniques
- How to Create Memorable Characters
- Script Analysis Skills
- Basic Dance Movement

SEMESTER COST IS $200

-Includes an end of semester celebration and "Showcase" for family and friends!

Semesters are 8 weeks long with classes every Saturday

The "Just Kids" Class is Saturday's 10am-12pm Ages 7-11

The "Just Teens" Class is Saturday's 1pm-3pm Ages 11-17

FOR REGISTRATION E-MAIL: ICASTINGKIDS@GMAIL.COM OR CALL 813-253-9868

Kimberly McVicar has been teaching for 15 years. She is a member of Second City Conservatory, SAG and AFTRA. Ms. McVicar also has extensive film and television credits such as Improv, Throwing Stars, CTV, Hallow's Point and was a bad dancer in "He's Just Not That into You". She has performed on MTV Music video awards, and also danced with P. Diddy. Kimberly professional dance credits includes Toronto Raptors, Culture Shock, T.O. Dance Force, Harlem Arts Program, American Pro Bowl. Throughout her career she has been sponsored by TIMEX, REEBOK, NIKE and POLO SPORT and has also been published in "Photo" Magazine as NYC best dance leapers.

With a Bachelor's Degree in Theatre, Jannette Sepwa has been acting for over 12 years, performing in different theaters and cities all over the country. She has worked with industry professionals such as Armand Assante, Richard Futch, and Kathy Laughlin. She has been working with kids for almost just as long-- whether it is in their classrooms, in workshops or performing in children's theater companies. She is extremely happy and excited to be working with Kim on teaching a process of acting that will challenge, develop, and inspire your kids to be creative thinkers and great actors!